THE FUTURE OF ERASMUS
IS FOR ALL

THE PROJECT

Erasmus is one of the success stories of Europe and has just celebrated its 35th anniversary.

In spite of that, student participation in mobility exchange remains low, especially among the more under-represented groups.

The aim of the Erasmus4ALL project, funded by the European Union, is to address this issue by devising a new, economically more viable scholarship scheme.

OBJECTIVES

- ▶ Keep the topics of inclusion and equity high on the policy agenda;
- ▶ Build a shared understanding of the desired evolution of the Erasmus+ grant system among stakeholders;
- ▶ Mobilize lawmakers on resources allocation strategies broadening student mobility participation;
- ▶ Provide relevant and in-depth input for the mid-term review of the current Erasmus+ programme.
