University of Porto

With origins dating back to the eighteenth century, the University of Porto is currently one of the most prestigious Higher Education Institutions of the European Union, ranked within the 2% best universities in the world.

Close to 31,000 students, 3,000 teaching staff and researchers along with 1,600 administrative staff attend its 15 schools and 48 research units, spread across 3 university campuses located in the city of Porto, Portugal.

With more than 300 graduate and undergraduate degrees, the University of Porto provides an exceptional variety of courses and programmes, covering the whole range of study areas and all levels of Higher Education.

Its 48 research units are responsible for more than 20% of the Portuguese papers indexed in the Web of Science database. In fact, the University of Porto has some of the most productive and internationally renowned Portuguese R&D centres.

And the innovation produced at the University of Porto has led to the development of several successful technologies and companies. The U.Porto Science and Technology Park has already supported students and researchers in creating more than 600 startups and 2,000 new jobs.

The University of Porto welcomes international students from all over the world in its more than 300 graduate and undergraduate degrees.

The tuition fees for international students range between 2,000 EUR and 8,500 EUR per year, according to the chosen course and degree.

PORTO

The University of Porto welcomes every year 7,000 international students, from more than 100 countries, which account for 20% of all students enrolled.

As the University open its arms to international students, so does the city of Porto to visitors from all over the globe. Porto is a world-renowned tourist destination, famous for its Historic Centre - classified as World Heritage Site - and for the hospitality of its people.

Porto is a multicultural city, full of green areas, sports venues and a vibrant cultural and arts scene. Portugal is the 4th safest country in the world, according to the 2021 Global Peace Index.

One of Porto's points of attraction for students is its relatively low cost of living. Some reference values for monthly expenses: accommodation costs between 250 and 500 EUR, meals are about 250 EUR and public transportation with 30 EUR.
